

Art Submissions

2017 Idaho Recovery Awareness

September is Recovery Month

“Art is not what you see, but what you make others see.” *Edgar Degas

We have many talented people throughout the state who have opened our hearts and minds by sharing their innermost feelings. We hope you enjoy this collection of art relating to addiction and recovery submitted by Idahoans and that it inspires you as it has inspired us.

-The Division of Behavioral Health

Department of Health and Welfare

Featured Artist: Justin Abel

“The path to adulthood wasn't an easy one for Justin Abel. Starting with a car accident at age 14, Abel's path was blocked by drug addiction, a natural disaster and prison time, which may have saved him from himself.”

"You either have your epiphany or you don't. I was rescued"

Read Justin's Story:

<http://www.mountainhomenews.com/story/2420247.html>

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel

Artist: Justin Abel